

I agree with the NCVEC that a large number of experienced amateur radio operators are turned away because of the Element 1 requirement. Please remove that requirment as soon as possible.